In consideration of the admission of Applicant by the Automotive Glass Replacement Safety Standard Council (AGRSS) into its ANSI/AGRSS 002-2002 Standard Training Program Registration, AGRSS' grant of authority to Applicant to use the AGRSS trademark(s) in connection with such Training Program and other good and valuable consideration, Applicant hereby agrees as follows:

1. That Applicant's Training Program is understood and implemented, by all those it employs who directly or indirectly are engaged or may be engaged in training within the program submitted by applicant for registration; and that this program complies and is conducted in accordance with the requirements of the ANSI/AGRSS 002-2002 Automotive Glass Replacement Safety Standard, hereafter "AGRSS Standard", attached hereto as Attachment A and made part hereof, as it may be amended from time to time; and that Applicant will accurately and completely answer each of the questions listed on Attachment B hereto and made a part hereof as evidence of such compliance;
2. That Applicant will participate in the promotion of the AGRSS Standard and its benefits to the consuming public and to the industry;

3. That Applicant will abide by the policies and procedures of AGRSS including its logo usage policy;
4. That AGRSS may publish the Applicant's name, or otherwise identify the Applicant's name, as having an AGRSS registered Training Program.
5. That Applicant will undertake the necessary procedures to successfully complete the AGRSS Training Program Registration Form in Attachment B and written instructions. This application and Registration Form will be submitted, with the required "Deliverables" attachments, within 90 days of Applicant's receipt of the registration packet;
6. That a nonrefundable application fee of US$250 accompanies this application; and that an annual renewal fee of US$150 will be due and payable by the anniversary of approval of this application. In addition, a US$1 payment is provided for each certificate of registration ordered beyond the one free certificate provided as part of the application and renewal process;
7. That Applicant will adhere to any guidelines adopted by AGRSS for the use of any AGRSS logos or trademark(s); provided, however, that in the event Applicant becomes, for whatever reason, non-compliant with the AGRSS

Standard, Applicant's right to use the AGRSS trademark(s) or make reference to its participation in this Registration Program shall immediately cease, and that it will immediately cease using such trademark(s) or references.

- 8. In the event it is determined by AGRSS, either as a result of a periodic assessment of Applicant or otherwise, that Applicant's training program no longer complies with the AGRSS Standard, Applicant may appeal the determination of its non-compliance to an AGRSS Standard Appeal Board. Applicant agrees that any decision by the Appeal Board concerning Applicant's continuing eligibility and participation in this Program and use of the AGRSS trademark(s) will be final.

- 9. AGRSS, its officers, committee members, staff and authorized AGRSS representatives (the "Indemnified Parties") shall have no liability for, and Applicant shall defend, indemnify and hold each of the Indemnified Parties harmless from and against, any claim, loss, demand, liability, obligation and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of, pertaining to, or resulting in any way from Applicant's participation in this Registration Program or Applicant's use of or compliance with or failure to comply with the AGRSS Standard;
- 10. That the undersigned has complete authority from Applicant to execute this application on
